Terms and Conditions

Terms of Use

By accessing or using the TechShare.Prosecutor Defense Portal website, and the content thereof, however accessed, you agree to be bound by these terms of use ("Terms of Use"):

1. You are responsible for maintaining the confidentiality of your TechShare.Prosecutor Defense Portal account, and you are solely responsible for all activities that occur under your account and/or those you authorize as defense participants. You agree to notify the Dallas County District Attorney's Office immediately of any unauthorized use of your account or any other breach of security related to the TechShare.Prosecutor Defense Portal website. The Dallas County District Attorney's Office and/or the Dallas County Information Technology Chief Information Officer reserve the right to require you to change your password or to take steps necessary to secure your account if any of the foregoing believe that your account or password is no longer secure.
2. You are subject to the criminal penalties set forth in Texas Government Code Section 411.085 for any unauthorized obtaining, use, or disclosure of Criminal History Record Information disclosed, to you, the attorney of record, and/or those you authorize as defense participants, pursuant to the requirements of the Texas Code of Criminal Procedure Article 39.14, under the Open File Policy of the Dallas County District Attorney's Office.
3. You are subject to the terms of the Order for Discovery and Disclosure of Criminal History Record Information, Medical Records Covered by HIPPA, and Records Covered by Family Code Section 261.201. As with any Court Order, violation of the terms of the above Orders may result in sanctions against you, including but not limited to, Contempt of Court pursuant to Texas Government Code Section 21.002.
4. You are responsible for obtaining and maintaining all equipment and services needed for access to and use of the TechShare.Prosecutor Defense Portal website and for paying any and all charges that may be related thereto.

I agree to these terms and conditions.
