

CITY OF DUNCANVILLE, TEXAS

GOT SCOFFED?

If you have received a scofflaw notice related to a Duncanville Red Light Camera or other Duncanville issued fine, you will not be able to renew your motor vehicle registration until your outstanding fines are paid. Below are the methods to pay your outstanding fines and fees for your convenience.

Please insure that you have the following information available: notice of violation, violation number (DUR), or license plate number.

Online at www.photonotice.com

Or in person at the following City of Duncanville Location:

City of Duncanville Municipal Court
203 E. Wheatland Road (Wheatland @ Main)
Duncanville, TX 75116
Hours: 8:00 A.M. – 5:00 P.M. Monday – Friday

Or in person or by mail:

Red Flex Traffic Systems (PLANO OFFICE)
1721 W. Plano Pkwy Suite 105
Plano, TX 75075
Hours: 8:00 A.M. – 5:00 P.M. Monday – Friday

What is Scofflaw?

Section 702.003 of the Texas Transportation Code provides that the Dallas County Tax Assessor may refuse to register a motor vehicle for failure to appear or pay a fine that involves the violation of a traffic law.

For additional questions contact the City of Duncanville Municipal Court at 972-780-5055 ext. 1058

