Dallas County Judge Clay Jenkins to Speak at International Health Privacy Summit

WASHINGTON, D.C. – Dallas County Judge Clay Jenkins will address the 5th International Summit on the Future of Health Privacy this morning at Georgetown Law Center. Patients, healthcare professionals, IT innovators, the media, and national and international privacy experts from consumer and civil society organizations, academia, industry, and the government gather to listen and participate in vibrant discussions with world leaders and experts in privacy. Judge Jenkins has been asked to participate after he led the Dallas Ebola response last year, balancing health privacy with public safety.
