Sawnie Robertson	Jan.	1880

Criminal District Court was created by the State Legislature on June 4, 1873. Silas Hare served as Judge of this Court until it was abolished in 1876. Additionally, election Records show spellings of "Aldredge" and "Aldridge", but the family living in the area and its descendents spell the name "Aldredge." Election Records at the Texas State Archives List him as Olive Wellbourn, but the actual Dallas minutes show Olin Wellborn. It is common to find several spellings of the same name in the hand-written records in the 1940s. From 1846 to 1884, Dallas County was included with Ellis County, (Waxahachie, Texas) and other counties that comprised the 5 and 6 Judicial Districts of Texas. George Aldredge was elected to the 14th Independent District Court, November 4, 1884 when the Court's Jurisdiction covered Dallas and Ellis Counties. This was a strongly contested election in which Burke's vote from Dallas was 5,014 to Aldredge's 3,219. However, Aldredge carried Ellis County 3,365 to Burke's 1,440 votes. Aldredge was still serving when the 14th Judicial District Was organized and jurisdiction was limited to only Dallas County. Burke became Judge of this court first by being appointed as a Special Judge, March 17, 1887. He became the first officially elected judge of the present 14th Judicial District Court, November 6, 1888. In 1887, the Texas Legislature drew up election precincts, which were divided into wards. It appears that in early elections (before the regularly held General Elections in November) officials took office immediately after being elected.

According to Claude Williams, former Judge of the 160th Civil District Court, Sarah Hughes, who was serving in the State Legislature at the time, went to Governor Allred to ask him to appoint Dick Dixon. When she came out of his office the Governor had appointed her.

The dates served through or for part of the year, shown only as year and not month/day/year, are either from Dallas Records or, thus, correlated to beginning term of succeeding judge.

Election and Commission data are from Texas State Archives Election Records through 1954. Subsequent information is from the Dallas Records.

Footnotes - see top of next page.

- (1) Burke later became first Judge elected to 14th Judicial District Court.
- (2) May have been appointed to 19th District Court instead of 14th. Entry in Election Records in State Archives is handwritten and difficult to decipher.
- (2) Scott and Frank appear in Dallas Records, but not in Election Records at State Archives.
- (3) As recorded in Election Records at State Archives.

There are probably more special judges for the 14th District Court that may be recorded elsewhere, or not recorded at all. It is unlikely that the list herein is complete. Election Records have been checked through 1954. Year-to-year, volume-to-volume, entries for a particular item may appear at the front of one, at the back of another, inserted into records of elections for that year, etc.

SPECIAL NOTE:

The size and complexity of the multi-billion dollar COMANCHE PEAK ATOMIC POWER LITIGATION made appropriate the appointment of several Masters in Chancery by the 14th District Court.

R. C. Wynn, Esq. was named Master in Chancery under a special appointment; and upon his resignation, he was succeeded by the Honorable Christopher A. Kepler. Under an Order of Appointment of the 21st day of December, 1987, Judge Kepler was joined as Co-Master in Chancery by the Hon. P. Oswin Chrisman, former District Judge of the 44th District Court of Dallas County.

44th DISTRICT COURT

*Historical data provided by Judge John Nelms 3-2-93. "W. W. Nelms, Judge of Criminal District Court from 1907 to 1908, was my great-grandfather, Richard R. Nelms' nephew and later the official reporter for the Court of Criminal Appeals in Austin. His father, James A. Nelms, former Sheriff of Navarro County, was later a constable in Sherman and was killed in a gunfight at a saloon there July 4. 1879, when Judge W. W. Nelms was just a boy." There are newspaper accounts detailing the event. About a dozen years ago. Judge W. W. Nelms' great granddaughter, Meg Morey, was an assistant District Attorney under Henry Wade.

Note: Election Records at the Texas State Archives have been checked from 1846 through 1954. Dallas County Election Records (microfiche) have been checked from 1846 through 1902.

(1) Appointment was made by Order 195 issued by Maj. Gen. J. J. Reynolds, November 9, 1867 removing existing elected officials. It is probable that Judge Coombes was also removed by this order.

(2) In Texas Archives Election Records, the name appears as John M. Rawlings.

(3) These names do not appear in the Election Records at the Texas State Archives nor in Dallas Election Records.

NOTE: Information was gathered from Election Records at Texas State Archives, Austin Texas, verified through 1954 for Election Dates. Dallas County Election Records (microfiche) were checked from 1846 through 1902. Records Data from Jan. 01, 1981 to present are gathered from Dallas Records.

Benjamin Long and M. Trevenet may not have been qualified because of refusal to take or disqualification on the “Iron Clad Oath” given in the reconstruction period in which a person had to swear that, among other things, he had not participated in any rebellion or civil war against the laws of any State or of the United States, nor had he aided anyone who did. (See “Act of Prescribed Date of Office,” Statute 502, July 2, 1862 in PASCHAL’S Digest of the Laws of Texas and “An Act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel states, March 2, 1867” and “Supplement Act of March 23, 1867” in Gammel’s Laws of Texas 1866 - 1871.) (See Addendum “A”)

It can be assumed that clerks elected in November began serving in office January 1 of the following year. It appears that clerks were serving in office before they were officially commissioned. Dallas records show that from George Harwood on clerks began serving January 1st.

(1) Masten Street in Dallas named for William Masten

(2) Young was removed by order 195, issued by Maj. Gen. J. J. Reynolds, November 9, 1867. By this same order, Spillman was made Commander of the 5th Military District at this time. (Information from Dallas Public Library Archives.)

(3) When Benjamin Long immigrated to the U.S. from Switzerland, he spelled his name “Lang.” Long was shot and killed while trying to break up a bar room brawl near the site where later President Kennedy was shot.

(It appears that Alexander Harwood was elected December 02, 1873 as District and County Clerk for a three-year period but is only recorded under District at that time in the Election Records at the State Archives. Archival records again show him as County Clerk in the Election of February IS, 1876. The title changed to County Clerk in 1882.)

NOTE: Texas Archives Election Records were checked from 1846 through 1954. Dallas County Election Records (microfiche) were checked from 1846 through 1902.

* Henry Shank (s) and John Cullom are how the names appear in some Dallas records. However, Texas Archives Records, Dallas Election Records, and newspaper clippings at the Dallas Public Library substantiate the correctness of the names of Frank R. Shanks and Ben F. Cullom. Election Records at the State Archives show Lee H. Hughes as S. H. Hughes. Further investigation at the Dallas Public Library showed that this probably resulted in a clerical error in copying the initial of the man who preceded him.

- (1) Order 195 issued by Maj. Gen. J. J. Reynolds, November 9, 1867, removed Thomas and appointed Jones.
- (2) First 10 County Clerks were officially called "Clerk County Court."
- (3) These elections for Scott and Allen are shown on the Dallas County Election Records (microfiche) but were not noted when examining the Texas Archives Election Records.
- (4) Listed in some instances as "Clerk, County Court", and others as "Clerk, District Clerk."

(1) These names appear on Dallas County Treasurer's List but are not entered in Texas Archives Election records or on Dallas County Elections Records (microfiche). Texas Archives Election Records were checked from 1846 through 1954, and Dallas Election Records (microfiche) were checked 1846 through 1902.

(2) Order 195, issued by Maj. Gen. J. J. Reynolds, November 9, 1867, removed Sheppard and appointed Gouffe, who had been a French citizen, did not become a legal citizen until December 10, 1867.

(3) Boll's name is misspelled in the Texas Archives record of 1870 as "Ball" and appears frequently in Dallas records as well as Dallas Election Records (microfiche). It also has been shown as "Bole" in other records. The correct spelling has been confirmed by Dallas Public Library Archives research.

(4) This is a case in which two men were appointed and commissioned to the same office. King was removed and did not serve.

(5) This name is spelled "Ervin" in Texas Archival Election Records.

(6) Dallas Public Library Archives were researched with transcribed Commissioners' Court Minutes. There were no Dallas newspapers before 1855.

NOTE: Election Records at the State Archives from 1946 through 1954 were examined. Dallas Election Records (microfiche) from 1846 through 1902 were also examined to compile this information. Material was also taken from Sheriffs of Dallas County 1846-1985 written by Deputy Sheriff O'Byrn Cox, Jr. and his wife, Margaret Cox.

Additional commentary:

The first 17 Sheriffs were born outside the State of Texas.

William Reynolds was the first Sheriff to occupy the Criminal Courts Building.

In 1955, the term of office for the Sheriff was changed to a four year term.

Carl Thomas was the first Republican Sheriff since Reconstruction Days.

The Huitts were brothers. Election Records of Dallas and State Archives show the name of John Hewitt. However, books on personalities of Texas and bond records show "Huitt."

Mention is made of Henderson as Sheriff in Dallas history books, found in research by O' Byrne Cox. The name does not appear in the Texas Archives or Dallas County Election Records (microfiche).

Order 195, issued by Maj. Gen. J. J. Reynolds, November 09, 1867. removed Brown from office and appointed Winniford.

Election Records of Dallas and stale Archives mistakenly show the name to be "Winnifred." The Dallas Public Library Archives and descendant now employed in the Sheriffs Department show the name to be "Winniford".

(1) These dates are speculative, based on the election or appointment of the following Tax Assessor/Collector. Information listed reported here is based only on Dallas County Records found in the Dallas County Election Department microfiche of records 1846 and other information. Much of the microfilm is very poor quality, with names, dates, and other information faint and almost illegible. Dallas County Election Records (microfiche) do not appear to show any information on elections in 1884, 1908, and 1936. There were no City or County elections in 1867.

(2) Seydel signed his name on documents with one "l". Dallas County Election Records (microfiche) and newspapers at that time misspelled the name as "Seydell." (Original documents at Dallas Public Library Archives) Goodnight was removed and Seydel appointed by Order 195 of November 09, 1867.

(3) Dallas Records do not appear to contain elections of a Tax Assessor/Collector in the years between elections of June 25, 1866 and July 15, 1876. However, as evidenced by a document in the possession of the present Tax Assessor/Collector, Jeremiah M. Brown, elected Sheriff, December 03, 1869 (Archival Records show this to be December 30, 1869), the Sheriff served also in the capacity of Tax Assessor/Collector. Because of the lack of records to support or negate the suggestion, it can be speculated that the next Sheriff, Sheriff James Edward Barkley, elected December 02, 1873 serving until April 15, 1876, also served in this dual capacity.

(4) Dallas microfilm shows the name as Hichcox. In the next election, it is spelled "Hickox." However, a document as the Public Library signed by him with the name printed below shows the correct spelling to be "Hickcox".

(5) Ed Cobb served from 1934 to 1947 as Tax Assessor/Collector when again the offices were combined.

ADDENDUM "A"

Act to Prescribe an Oath of Office
Statute 502, July 2, 1862

"109... I, _____, do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I have never voluntarily acted against the United States since I have been a citizen thereof; that I have voluntarily given no aid, countenance, counsel, or encouragement to persons engaged in armed hostility thereto; that I have neither sought nor accepted nor attempted to exercise the functions of any office whatever, under any authority or pretended authority in hostility to the United States; that I have not yielded a voluntary support to any pretended government, authority, power, or constitution within the United States, hostile or inimical thereto. And I do further swear (or affirm) that, to the best of my knowledge and ability, I will support and defend the constitution of the United States, against all enemies, foreign and domestic; that I will bear true faith and allegiance to the same; that I take this obligation freely, without any mental reservation or purpose of evasion, and that I will well and faithfully discharge the duties of the office on which I am about to enter, so help me God."

HISTORICAL LIST OF JUSTICES OF THE PEACE
DALLAS COUNTY

1846 - Present

Partial Listing
Revised January 2009

Prepared by the District Clerk's Office

Gary Fitzsimmons, District Clerk
Dallas County, Texas

Preface

The Justice of the Peace function has often been a stepping stone for those wishing to serve the public. Many JPs have gone on to serve as County or District Judges, as members of the Commissioners Court, as State Representatives and in various City positions.

One interesting example of civic dedication is Justice John Henry Brown, who reversed the usual order of service. He began his civic service as Mayor of Galveston, became a State Representative, then a Dallas alderman and eventually became the Mayor of the City of Dallas. When he retired as Mayor in 1888, he was appointed Justice of the Peace in Dallas County. When he finally retired, his last act as a public servant was to write the following as the last entry in his Civil Docket Book:

With a clear conscience at 12 o'clock PM on this the 18th day of November, 1890, I deliver this and all other books pertaining to my office to Edw. S. Lauderdale as my Successor, and pray God to guide and bless him in the path of duty.
John Henry Brown, JP¹

A list of those serving as Justices of the Peace for Dallas County had never before been compiled before the 1990s, due probably to the fact that the task required referencing a multitude of sources -- from published official election returns (ER)², Commissioners Court Minutes (CCM)³, County Auditor's reports (AUD)⁴, newspaper election accounts (DTH and DMN)⁵, City of Dallas directories (DIR)⁶, the Memorial and Biographical History of Dallas County (M&BH)⁷, and in some cases actual JP records⁸.

Early election registers usually named Justices but do not always specify the precinct or place. Commissioners Court Minutes sometimes name the precinct and place number and the date when a Justice's bond was posted and actual commissioning took place. In addition, these minutes provide details about resignations and replacement appointments that do not necessarily appear in election registers.

The time period during and after the Civil War caused many changes in the Justice of the Peace function: local and statewide elected officials were replaced by appointees named by the interim government and precinct numbers and boundaries were changed. During the Reconstruction period, Justices were appointed for four years instead of two, and acted to administer county business, replacing the disbanded Commissioners Court. The Constitution of 1876 (still in effect, with amendments, in 2000) re-established the Commissioners Court and the original two-year terms for Justices.⁹

A partial list of historical events that influenced the position of Justice of the Peace is included as part of this document.

In this list, a question mark is used whenever the start or stop date for a term is uncertain, and each entry includes source data to support conclusions about the office-holder and the dates served. There are a few instances in which there is simply no data available to determine who filled a JP office during a certain time period.

⁹The term for JPs was changed from two to four years in 1954.

HISTORICAL EVENTS AFFECTING THE JP POSITION

- 1845 Texas became a State in the Union Dec 29,1845, adopting the Constitution of 1845.
- 1846 Dallas County was created from Nacogdoches and Robertson Counties. Act was passed for election of Dallas County officers, May 1846.
- 1861 Texas voted to secede from Union Feb 23, 1861, remaining part of the Confederate States until 1865.
- 1864 County Commissioners named in 1864 and served until Provisional Government of 1865 established.
- 1865 Reconstruction period; Texas returned as part of the Union after May 11, 1865.
- 1866 Constitutional Convention Jan 1866 produced the Constitution of 1866, which restored a civil government “provisional” until state conforms to national guidelines. Appointments to office under the Provisional Government from Aug 1865 to July 1866. The Insurrection was over.
- 1867 Dallas County was under “radical rule” (a.k.a. “Military Despotism”) whereby all Democrats holding offices in the State/County were removed by military order as impediments to Reconstruction and replaced by military appointments.
- 1869 Reconstruction Constitution of 1869 lasted until Constitution of 1876 Provided that each County shall have five Justices, one of whom shall reside after this election at the county seat, not more than one of said should be a resident of the same JP Precinct ... Office for four years...Justices of each County shall constitute a court, like the previous County Commissioners and Police Courts; the Justice who resides at the County seat shall be the presiding judge.
[There was no separate Commissioners Court positions until the Constitution of 1876.]
Constitution made District and County Clerk one position but became two separate positions again in 1876 under Constitution of 1876.
- 1868 Election was held Feb 15, 1876 to approve a new Constitution that took effect April 18, 1876. This Constitution, with amendments, remains in effect to date. New Constitution of 1876 provided for elections for both Commissioners and JPs, and separated the positions of District and County Clerks.
Under the Constitution of 1876:
Article V, Section 18, Terms of Justices of the Peace...
a) *Each county in the State with a population of 18,000 or more, according to the most recent federal census, from time to time, for the convenience of the people, shall be divided into not less than four and not more than eight precincts... in each such*¹⁰

¹⁰ Texas Constitution details from the 1998—1999 Texas Almanac, (Dallas: Dallas Morning News, 1997), pp. 353-4.

HISTORICAL EVENTS AFFECTING THE JP POSITION continued

precinct there shall be elected one Justice of the Peace and one Constable, each of whom shall hold his office for four years and until his successor shall be elected and qualified... in a county with a population of 150,000 or more, according to the most recent federal census, each precinct may contain more than one Justice of the Peace Court.

c) When the boundaries of Justice of the Peace and Constable precincts are changed, each Justice and Constable in office on the effective date of the change, or elected to a term of office beginning on or after the effective date of the change, shall serve in the precinct in which the person resides for the term to which each was elected or appointed, even though the change in boundaries places the person's residence outside the precinct for which he was elected or appointed, abolishes the precinct for which he was elected or appointed, or temporarily results in extra Justices or Constables serving in a Precinct. When, as a result of a change of precinct boundaries, a vacancy occurs in the office of Justice of the Peace or Constable, the Commissioners Court shall fill the vacancy by appointment until the next general election.

[Note: Sec 18 of Art V has been amended five times:] To change the term of office for Justices of the Peace and Constables from two to four years. [Submitted by 53rd Legislature, 1953, and adopted in election Nov 2 1954.]

To provide that certain justice precincts may contain more than one justice of the peace court [Submitted by 70th Legislature, 1987, and adopted in election Nov 3 1987.]

Article V, Section 19 ... Jurisdiction of Justices of the Peace:

“Justice of the peace courts shall have original jurisdiction in criminal matters of misdemeanor cases punishable by fine only, exclusive jurisdiction in civil matters in which the amount in controversy is two hundred dollars or less [increased to five thousand dollars] and such other jurisdiction as may be provided by law. Justices of the peace shall be ex officio notaries public.”

Article V, Section 28, Vacancies in Offices...

“Vacancies in the office of County Judge and Justices of the Peace shall be filled by the Commissioners' Court until the next succeeding general election. “ [Note: not to the full elected term]

- 1887 Mesquite was incorporated as a town.
- 1890 Oak Cliff was incorporated as a city in 1890. Dissolved and re-incorporated as a smaller entity in June 1891.
- 1891 Garland was incorporated (had been called Embree), near Duck Creek.
- 1892 Precinct 1 consisted of the City of Dallas and suburbs and Calhoun.
Precinct 3 consisted of Rose Hill, Pleasant Valley, Garland, New Hope and Reinhardt.
Precinct 4 consisted of Scyene, Mesquite, Haught's Store, Seagoville and Kleburg.
Precinct 5 consisted of DeSoto, Hutchins, Wilmer, Lancaster and Rylie. Precinct 6 consisted of Duncanville and Cedar Hill.
Precinct 7 consisted of Lisbon, Eagle Ford, Grand Prairie and Oak Cliff. Precinct 8 consisted of Sowers, Spring Chapel and Estill.
- 1894 Precinct 2 included Richardson.
- 1903 Oak Cliff was annexed by Dallas.
- 1905 About 1905, Precinct 8 included Irving as well as Coppell and Sowers.
- 1920 By 1920, Precinct 7 contained two places.
- 1944 Changed boundaries for Precincts 6, 7, 8.
- 1954 Term of JP office was changed from two years to four years.
- 1967 Precinct 8 included Richardson as well as Irving.
- 1976 Second place was added to Precinct 8 on January 1, 1976. Second place was added to Precinct 2 on January 1 1976.
- 1988 Second place was added to Precinct 3 in 1994.
- 1989-94 Precinct 4 still contains Garland but Mesquite was moved to Place 1 in the newly enlarged Precinct 5. Place 2 in Precinct 5 was Grand Prairie.
- 1994 Major redistricting of precincts. Farmers Branch and Carrollton were moved from Precinct 3 to Precinct 2, place 2. A large portion of North Dallas was added to Precinct 3. Most of East Dallas and all of downtown Dallas was moved from Precinct 1, except for the Courthouse and one street linking it to the rest of the precinct.
- 1998 Precinct 2, place 2 included Irving, Carrollton, Coppell and Farmers Branch.
- 2001 Effective October 1, 2001, Dallas County Commissioners Court reduced the number of Justice of the Peace Courts from 14 to 11 JP positions and six Constable positions to five. This resulted in reduction of JPs by three and the Constables by one. Precincts were redrawn and precincts and place numbers going forward no longer represented same geographical districts. Note: Precincts reflected as 1-A, 3-A, and 5-A are the districts to be deleted upon completion of the JP's current term of office.
