On Thursday, March 22, 2012, the leadership of the Dean Reynolds Chapter 137, Vietnam Veterans of America, including President Robert Young and Vice President Lou E. Clay, presented Tax Assessor/Collector John R. Ames with a plaque of appreciation for providing an informative talk to their group. In addition, certificates of appreciation were presented to Corey Worsham, Property Tax Director; Norman Kasal, Process Initiative Director and Cheryl Jordan, Dallas Central Appraisal District Community Relations Officer, for their participation with the group discussion.

Dean Reynolds chapter 137, Vietnam Veterans of America is a 501(c)(19) non-profit organization that has been, and continues to be, proactive in channeling its members' individual and collective energies to raise funding for chapter projects that provide financial assistance to veterans and their families. Chapter projects include Dean Reynolds golf tournaments, gun shows, Wounded Warriors program and Roy Rogers VVA#137 scholarships.

Dallas County Tax Assessor/Collector John R. Ames, and his staff, speaks regularly at various community groups and functions providing valuable information regarding property tax matters and motor vehicle registration concerns. "It is important to let the citizens of Dallas County know what we do in the Tax Office. On many occasions, my staff and I provide information that can assist citizens in knowing more about their tax liabilities, payment options and available exemptions," stated Mr. Ames. The Tax Office regularly speaks to Lions Clubs, Rotary Clubs, Homeowners Associations and School Career Days. If you are a member of an organization that would benefit from this type of information, please contact Norman Kasal at nkasal@dallascounty.org to schedule a time when Mr. Ames or a staff member can speak to your group.
