5. Divorce

IT IS ORDERED that the Petitioner and the Respondent are divorced.

6. Property and Debts

About community property: Texas is a community property state. This means that any new property or debt that either party obtains from the minute they are married until the minute the judge grants the divorce is probably community property, even if the property or debt is only in one spouse's name. There are only a few exceptions to the law of community property. The exceptions are gifts, inheritance, or a recovery for personal injuries that occurred during the marriage that is not for lost wages or medical expenses. All community property and debt should be included in the Final Decree of Divorce.

About separate property: If either party receives a gift, an inheritance, or a recovery for personal injuries that occurred during the marriage that is not for lost wages or medical expenses, it is separate property. It is a good idea to list separate property obtained during the marriage as that spouse's separate property in the Final Decree of Divorce.

More information about community and separate property can be found by consulting a lawyer, as well as in the Texas Family Code, Chapters 3, 4, and 5.

The Court makes the following orders regarding the parties' community and separate property:

Husband's Property
