COURT'S ADMONITIONS TO DEFENDANT

You have an absolute right to confront and cross-examine the witnesses against you, and to call witnesses in your own behalf. You have a right to testify, but you cannot be compelled to do so. If you do testify anything you say can and will be used as evidence against you. The prosecuting attorney's recommendation as to punishment is not binding on the Court. You do not have the right to withdraw your plea if the Court does not follow the prosecuting attorney's recommendation as to punishment. You have the right to be represented by an attorney. If you have a court-appointed attorney, you have a right to ten days from the date of the attorney's appointment to prepare for the hearing. If you are on unadjudicated community supervision, are found to have violated a condition of community supervision, and your guilt is adjudicated by the Court, the court may assess your punishment anywhere within the range provided by law for the offense. After adjudication of guilt, all proceedings, including assessment of punishment, pronouncement of sentence, the granting of community supervision, and an appeal, then continue as if adjudication of guilt had not been deferred.

If you are found guilty in the aforementioned cause, the Court will make an affirmative finding that you have been found guilty of a felony offense. You are instructed that a felony conviction impacts your right to vote in the State of Texas. Once the judgment is entered and any appeals are exhausted, you will not be qualified to vote in Texas. To become qualified to vote in the State of Texas after having been finally convicted of a felony, you must: 1) fully discharge your sentence, including any term of incarceration, parole, or supervision, 2) have completed your period of probation as ordered by the Court, or 3) have been pardoned or otherwise released from the resulting disability to vote.

DEFENDANT'S STATEMENTS AND WAIVERS

Defendant, with the approval of counsel, makes the following voluntary statements and waivers. I am the person named as the accused in the State's motion and am the same person who was previously placed on community supervision in this cause. I am mentally competent. I understand the nature of the accusation made against me, the range of punishment of the offense I was placed on community supervision for, and the consequences of a plea of true. I understand that I have the right to remain silent, that anything I say can and will be used against me, and that I have the right to confront and cross-examine the witnesses against me.

I hereby waive any and all defects, errors, or irregularities, whether of form or substance, in the State's motion, and waive my right to remain silent. I waive arraignment and reading of the State's motion, the appearance, confrontation, and cross-examination of witnesses, and my right to ten days to prepare for trial after the appointment of counsel (if counsel has been appointed). I consent to the oral or written stipulation of evidence or testimony, to the introduction of testimony by affidavits or written statements of witnesses, and to all other documentary evidence. I affirm that my plea, judicial confession, and stipulation of evidence are freely and voluntarily made, and not influenced by any consideration of fear, persuasion, or delusive hope of pardon or parole.

I understand that if I am continued on community supervision in this case and I am charged with a violation of my community supervision and arrested in another state, under the Uniform Extradition Act I have the right to require the issuance and service of a warrant of extradition, the right to hire legal counsel, or, if indigent, to have counsel appointed, and the right to apply for a writ of habeas corpus to contest my arrest and return to this State.

I voluntarily and knowingly waive my rights under the Extradition Act, waive extradition, and waive my right to contest my return to the State of Texas from any jurisdiction where I may be found. I understand and agree that such waiver is irrevocable.

I understand that I have a right to appeal to the Court of Appeals. If the trial court follows the terms of the State's recommendation as to sentencing, then, after consulting with my attorney, I do expressly, voluntarily, knowingly, and intelligently give up and waive my right to any appeal.

I understand that I have a right to have a court reporter make a record of these court proceedings and, after consulting with my attorney, I do hereby voluntarily, knowingly, and intelligently waive my right to have a court reporter make a record of these proceedings.

In my judicial confession and stipulation which follows, I incorporate by reference the allegations made against me in the motion now being heard by the Court.
