DALLAS COUNTY, TEXAS

MEDIATION ORDER

This case is appropriate for mediation pursuant to Section 154.001 et seq. Of the Texas Civil Practice and Remedies Code. (NAMED MEDIATOR) is appointed mediator in the above case and all counsel are directed to contact the mediator to arrange the logistics of mediation within 7 days from the date of this Order. Any objection to this Order must be filed and served upon all parties and the mediator, and a hearing must be requested, within 10 days from the date of receipt of this Order; an objection that is neither timely filed nor ruled upon before the scheduled mediation may be waived.

Mediation is a mandatory but non-binding settlement conference, conducted with the assistance of the mediator. Mediation is private, confidential and privileged from process and discovery. After mediation, the court will be advised by the mediator, parties and counsel, only that the case did or did not settle. The mediator shall not be a witness nor may the mediator's records be subpoenaed or used as evidence. No subpoenas, citations, writs, or other process shall be served at or near the location of any mediation session, upon any person entering, leaving or attending any mediation session.

The mediator will negotiate a reasonable fee with the parties which shall be divided and borne equally by the parties unless agreed otherwise, paid by the parties directly to the mediator, and taxed as costs. If the parties do not agree upon the fee requested by the mediator, the court will set a reasonable fee, which shall be taxed as costs. Each party and their counsel will be bound by the rules for mediation printed on the reverse hereof, and shall complete the information forms as are furnished by the mediator.

Named parties shall be present during the entire mediation process and each corporate party must be represented by an executive officer with authority to negotiate a settlement. Counsel, the parties and the mediator shall agree upon a mediation date within 20 days from the date of this order. If no date can be agreed upon within the 20 day period, the mediator shall select a date for the mediation and all parties shall appear as directed by the mediator.

The date scheduled by the mediator is incorporated in this Order as the date upon which the mediation shall occur. In any event, the mediation shall be conducted no later than _____

Failure or refusal to attend the mediation as scheduled may result in the imposition of sanctions, as permitted by law, which may include dismissal or default judgment. Failure to mediate will not be considered cause for continuance of the trial date. Referral to mediation is neither a substitute for nor a cause for delay of trial, and the case will be tried if not settled.

A report regarding the outcome of the mediation session is to be mailed by the mediator to the court, with a copy to the ADR Coordinator, immediately after the mediation session.
