

The following amendment to the Procedures and Rules Manual of the Dallas County Bail Bond Board, August 2022, was adopted on, May 8, 2025:

BONDSMAN/SURETY REQUIREMENTS

25. Contingency Licenses.

a. The Board will recognize a license for contingency purposes only if that licensee: reports the intention to the Board, meets all code and local rule requirements, and for all intents and purposes, does not conduct business.

b. A surety who maintains a license for contingency purposes may maintain an office in another surety's location if that surety (host) is a family member within the first degree of consanguinity and the surety/agent in question is the operations manager of the host surety's account.
