

Dallas County Texas
 John F. Warren
 Dallas County Clerk

List of acceptable identification used to obtain a marriage license.

Acceptable Identification	Marriage License
Driver's License – any state	Current or no more than two years expired
State ID – any state	Current or no more than two years expired
Certificate of Naturalization (with photo)	Current--Unexpired
Certificate of United States Citizenship (with photo)	Current--Unexpired
Department of Homeland Security (with photo)	Current--Unexpired
Employment Authorization Card	Current--Unexpired
Handgun License (Texas concealed handgun license only)	Current or no more than two years expired
Foreign Driver's License or ID and an official birth certificate	Current-Unexpired – all forms in English
International Driver's License (must show card and book)	Current--Unexpired
Military ID Card (with photo)--Active duty, Reserve, Retired, Dependent	Current--Unexpired
Offender ID (Not vending card) and a certified copy of birth certificate	Current--Unexpired
Offender ID--Notarized copy with Absentee Affidavit ONLY	Current--Unexpired
Passport--US & Foreign	Current--Unexpired
Permanent Resident Card	Current--Unexpired
Pilot's License	Current--Unexpired
Private Security Registration (DPS issued)	Current--Unexpired
School Id w/photo & certified copy of birth Certificate--FOR MINORS	Current--Unexpired
Canadian Driver's License	Current or no more than two years expired
TDCJ ID--(No vending card) & certified copy of birth certificate (names must match)	Current-Unexpired
Temporary Resident Card	Current-Unexpired
Temporary Driver's License, Permit or ID Card with photo in addition to Social security, birth certificate or old driver license/state identification	Current--Unexpired
United States Passport	Current--Unexpired
US Citizen Identification Card	Current--Unexpired
US Department of State (with photo)	Current--Unexpired
US Visa Card	Current--Unexpired

Identification presented has to be in its original form. We cannot accept ID's that is ripped, torn, mutilated, laminated or altered.