PRESENTATIONS

A presentation from the Dallas Police Department Violent Crime Division was presented to the committee by Lt. Nicholas Lybrand and Sandra Sadduk regarding the City of Dallas Focused Deterrence program.

530 Fund Balance & Update

The current total balance for the 530 fund is $243,292.81. There are 100 bus passes available. The FY25 Account Credits balance is $60,624.84, and the current operating remaining balance is $78,510.53. Marcus Turner announced that all specialty courts will need to complete their surveys to allow the survey funds to be available to the court. Deborah Hill reported that the remaining balance for specialty court incentives is $19,987.00. In the month of April, account 9277 balance was $159,095.52, and the balance for account 9276 was $84,197.29. The balance available in Account 120 is $32,422.62.

Drug Testing

Deborah Hill reported that the current balance available for Drug Testing is $29,631.89. The total line-item budgeted amount was $44,400.00, of which $14,768.11 has been invoiced. Ms. Hill mentioned that there has been an increase in i-Cup utilization causing some courts' drug testing funds to trickle. There are flex funds available for courts that have exhausted their drug testing funds.

Inpatient Treatment & Transitional Housing

The line-item budget for Inpatient Treatment at Salvation Army was $34,000.00. The amount currently available for this line item is $7,745.00. Ms. Deborah mentioned that additional justification will be requested by Marcus Turner for incoming referrals to determine the urgency for the inpatient treatment that is requested. The current funds available will allow for a minimum of one individual to enter treatment for the remaining fiscal year. The current funds available for Transitional Housing are $7,296.00. Two options were presented to the committee to transfer funds from the training line item into the transportation line item to purchase additional bus passes. Deborah Hill mentioned that additional options for transferring funds to increase the inpatient treatment and transportation line items would be provided to the 530 committee via email before the next scheduled meeting.

Department Updates

Office of the Governor – Keta Dickerson announced that grants have been reviewed for the next funding cycle. Courts were advised to ensure that the Best Assessments are reviewed to ensure that they are consistent with responses that are submitted to the Specialty Court Resource Center to prevent being penalized.

Announcements

Marcus Turner announced that a resolution will be presented for National Treatment Court Month. All committee members are invited to attend the Commissioner's Court on May 20, 2025 for the presentation. Resources from the South Dallas Employment Project were provided in the packet.

Adjournment

The meeting was adjourned and will be reconvened on June 11, 2025, at 9:00 a.m.
