PRE-TRIAL DIVERSION PROGRAMS FOR PROSTITUTION OFFENSES

The Dallas County District Attorney's Office established two diversion programs for individuals charged with prostitution offenses, who are often victims of human trafficking. The goal of these programs is to help participants exit this lifestyle and obtain skills for becoming physically, emotionally and financially independent.

What is the Misdemeanor Prostitution Pre-Trial Intervention Program?

All Misdemeanor Prostitution cases are reviewed for a 90-to 120-day Pre-Trial Intervention Agreement that connects the defendant with appropriate services through New Friends New Life, or similar provider as recommended by the Dallas County District Attorney's Office.

What is the Felony Pre-Trial Intervention Program?

All Felony Prostitution cases are reviewed for a Pre-Trial Intervention Agreement with the condition that the defendant completes the STAR Court Program, or similar program as recommended by the Dallas County District Attorney's Office.

How to apply for a Misdemeanor or Felony Prostitution PTI?

No application or referral form is necessary. Potential PTI Prostitution cases are proactively identified at our intake level and assigned to one prosecutor. That prosecutor will meet with the defendant's attorney at court settings to offer the Pre-Trial Intervention Agreement. For general information or questions about the Misdemeanor Prostitution Pre-Trial Intervention Program or Felony Pre-Trial Intervention Program, please contact PTIAttorney@dallascounty.org.
