DCHHS Announces Achieving Together: A Community Plan to End HIV in Texas Launch Event

DALLAS (May 20, 2019) – Dallas County Health & Human Services (DCHHS) announces the Achieving Together: A Community Plan to End HIV in Texas movement. The goal of the event is to not only bring awareness to the statewide ending HIV plan, but to put out a call to action to be involved with the movement to end HIV in our area. Achieving Together represents one piece of a comprehensive effort to end HIV in our community. Join Dr. Philip Huang, Commissioner John Wiley Price, Dr. John Carlo, Judge Clay Jenkins, Helen E. Turner and several other prominent state and local community leaders as we launch this momentous plan of action. “With all the new advances, we are really in a position where, by working together, we can end the HIV epidemic”, said Dr. Philip Huang, DCHHS Director / Health Authority.
