

SCHOOL PREVENTION RESOURCES

Substance Use Prevention. Overdose Education.
Student, Staff, & Parent Support.

- Overdoses among youth under 18 have increased every year for the past 5 years
- Drug supply continues to change
- Vaping and nicotine dependence are increasing on campuses
- Early prevention reduces long-term risk

WHAT WE CAN PROVIDE

STUDENT EDUCATION

- Warning signs of substance use
- Vaping & nicotine use
- Current drug trends & fentanyl risks
- Overdose signs & how to respond
- Prevention strategies

Assembly, grade-level, small group, and parent sessions available. DCHHS will tailor educational materials to your preferences.

STAFF TRAINING

- Trainings for:
 - Teachers
 - Administrators
 - School nurses
 - Campus response teams

STUDENT & FAMILY LINKAGE TO CARE

- Overdose Response Teams (ORTs) can provide:
 - Home visits
 - Treatment referrals for students or parents/guardians
 - Education

NARCAN FIRST AID KITS

- Provide stocked overdose response kits
- Deliver supplies
- Train staff on overdose recognition & Narcan administration

DCHHS
Dallas County Health and Human Services

Healthy People Healthy Communities
Health and Social Equity

