Retracted Policy Language

On July 7, 2009, Dallas County Commissioners Court adopted the following policy language for Section 86-97: "In order to prevent a conflict of interest, to preserve the interests of Dallas County, and to ensure a competent and qualified workforce, no applicant for employment with Dallas County will be hired who has civil litigation pending against Dallas County and/or its elected officials, directors, managers, supervisors, or employees, or who has been found by the Texas Workforce Commission to have been discharged for misconduct." This policy language has been retracted as of March 8, 2011.
