You have the opportunity to apply for these voluntary benefits:

Accident insurance helps offset unexpected medical expenses, such as emergency room fees, deductibles and co-payments that can result from a fracture, dislocation or other covered accidental injury.

Disability insurance replaces a portion of income if a covered accident or sickness prevents you from earning a paycheck. This insurance can provide a monthly benefit to help cover any ongoing expenses, including necessities like food and housing.

Critical illness insurance supplements your major medical coverage by providing a lump-sum benefit that you can use to pay the direct and indirect costs related to a covered critical illness, such as heart attack (myocardial infarction), end-stage renal failure, coronary artery bypass surgery, stroke or major organ transplant.

Hospital confinement indemnity insurance provides lump-sum benefits for a covered hospital confinement or outpatient surgery to help with deductibles and other expenses that are not covered by most major medical plans.

Whole life insurance provides guaranteed features – cash value accumulation, premium rates and death benefit (minus any loans and loan interest) – that help ensure those benefits will be there to help protect your family's way of life.

With most Colonial Life insurance products:

- Benefits are paid directly to you, unless you specify otherwise.
- You can continue coverage with no increase in premium when you retire or change jobs.
- You're paid regardless of any other insurance you may have with
- Coverage is available for your spouse and dependent children. other insurance companies.

Coverage is subject to policy exclusions and limitations that may affect benefits payable.

Products may vary by state and may not be available in all states. For cost and complete details, see a Colonial Life benefits counselor.
