

DALLAS COUNTY JUSTICE OF THE PEACE 4-2
JUDGE SASHA MORENO

SUMMER 2022 COURT INTERNSHIP

If you're interested in getting first-hand experience with the local court and justice system, apply today for the Dallas County Justice of the Peace 4-2 Court Internship.

INTERNSHIP DETAILS

- The internship will last for ten weeks during Summer 2022.
- Open to high school juniors or seniors and/or local college students.
- Internships would be part-time (1-3 days per week depending on schedule)
- The internship program would consist of the following:
 - Daily Tasks and Responsibilities: Interns will assist court clerks with basic administrative functions such as making copies, filing, and assisting with cases.
 - Weekly: Interns will have the opportunity to sit in on court hearings and take notes. Post hearing, students will meet with Judge Moreno to discuss any questions they have regarding the judicial process.
 - Bi-weekly: Interns will have lunch with Judge Moreno and other city and county officials to discuss their roles in the community, particularly with the justice system (i.e. Constable, City Council, School Board).
 - Throughout internship: Interns will work on either an essay or presentation to present to Judge Moreno and staff during their completion ceremony regarding their experience and overall thoughts of the justice system.

SCHOOL CREDIT: The court internship is part-time (approximately 20 hours per week) and unpaid. However, students can earn community service or class credit depending on the school's policies.

Summer 2022 INTERNSHIP TIMELINE:

- April 25, 2022 – Application Opens
- May 20, 2022 – Application Closes
- Week of May 23, 2022 - Review Applications and Set up Interviews
- May 30-June 3, 2022 - Conduct Interviews
- Week of June 6, 2022 – Send Decision Letters
- Week of June 13, 2022 - Internship Begins
- Week of August 1, 2022 – Internship Ends

Applications can be found at BIT.LY/JP4-2INTERNSHIP

Please email application form and a resume to Myesha Conerway at myesha.conerway@dallascounty.org by May 20, 2022.

For any questions regarding the application process, you can also call the court at (214) 589-7000. If we feel like you're a good fit for the program, we will contact you regarding setting up an interview.

THANK YOU FOR APPLYING!