Managing Highway Radiological Emergencies Table Top Exercise

Dallas County, the Southwest Regional Offices of Emergency Management, Dallas County Schools and the North Central Texas Council of Governments, in cooperation with partner agencies such as Dallas County Health and Human Services, the Texas Division of Emergency Management, the Department of State Health Services and the 6th Civil Support Team, along with area hospitals and radiation subject matter experts, will conduct a one-day training and table top exercise regarding transportation radiological emergencies.

As a co-host of this exercise, Dallas County Judge Clay Jenkins stated, "Failing to plan is planning to fail and this is a great opportunity for our regional partners to drill on response and recovery efforts that would be necessary in highway radiological incident."
