

September 23, 2016
For Immediate Release

MEDIA ADVISORY

Dallas County Judge Clay Jenkins marks Welcoming Week and Constitution Week by visiting a Citizenship Clinic at the Mexican Consulate in Dallas.

WHEN: Saturday, September 24th, 11:00 am

WHERE: Mexican Consulate, 1210 River Bend Drive, Dallas

COMMENTS:

“I can only imagine the mixed feelings one might experience considering becoming a citizen of the United States while feeling love for their home country. But, I want to ask permanent residents in Dallas County who may qualify for application to consider learning more about becoming a US citizen. Our community is stronger when everyone who qualifies shares the same rights. I urge permanent residents to attend the clinic at the Consulate to learn more.”

WHO: Dallas County Judge Clay Jenkins

Mexican Consulate General Francisco de la Torre

Representatives from

American Immigration Lawyers Association (AILA)

Proyecto Inmigrante

Caridades Católicas de Dallas

International Rescue Committee

North Texas Immigration and Education Table

University of North Texas (UNT) Dallas College of Law

CONTACT: Emily Trube, Office of Dallas County Judge
Cell 214-284-5913 Office Direct 214-653-4444
Maritza Kelley, Office of Dallas County Judge (en Espanol)
Cell 972-559-4121 Office Direct 214-653-6591

####