Dallas County Judge Clay Jenkins ‘dines small’ with SBA Regional Administrator and Greater Dallas Restaurant Association to support small businesses

DALLAS – Dallas County Judge Clay Jenkins and the U.S. Small Business Administration (SBA) South Central Region Administrator Yolanda Garcia Olivarez will ‘dine small’ with Heather Stevens, Greater Dallas Restaurant Association at Serious Pizza in Deep Ellum today at 11:30 a.m. The leaders are meeting to encourage consumers to support small businesses during the busiest shopping weekend of the year – Small Business Saturday.

“Small businesses are the backbone of our Dallas County economy and we must support them to ensure our community continues to grow,” Jenkins said. “I am proud to do my part by shopping – and eating! – locally this holiday season.”

Small Business Saturday is November 28th

Judge Jenkins and SBA Regional Administrator Garcia Olivarez will be available for comments Wednesday, November 18, 11:30 a.m. CST at Serious Pizza, 2807 Elm Street, Dallas, TX 75226.
