

For Immediate Release
June 16, 2018

Judge Jenkins Hosts "Some Like it Hot" Job Fair Next Thursday

DALLAS, Texas ---Dallas County Judge Clay Lewis Jenkins, in partnership with Workforce Solutions Greater Dallas, will host the "Some Like it Hot" job fair next Thursday, June 21st from 9am-noon at The Shed at the Dallas Farmers Market, 920 S. Harwood St., Dallas, TX 75201.

The "Some Like it Hot" job fair is geared towards employers with outdoor opportunities; however, the majority of companies represent construction, logistics, manufacturing and services. The jobs and wages vary from $10-$12/hour for groundskeepers to $24-$25/hour for landscape supervisor and CDL.

As of today, there are 69 employers signed up to attend with over 3,000 available jobs. Some of these employers include Austin Bridge and Road, FedEx Freight and Ground, Preservation Tree Services and UPS.

"The jobs are here for the taking. People already working in these fields should come see what we have that could UPGRADE their pay," said County Judge Clay Jenkins.

CONTACT:

Clay Jenkins

Clay.Jenkins@dallascounty.org

214-653-7949

###