

Fair Housing. . .

It's Right. It's Fair.

It's for EVERYONE!

Title VIII of the Civil Rights Act of 1968, as amended, makes discrimination based on race, color, religion, gender, handicap, familial status, national origin illegal in connection with the sale of rental of most housing and any vacant land offered for residential construction or use.

Fair Housing is a national policy of the United States.
It's law and it's your right.

As many as two million people who want to rent or buy a home will be discriminated against this year. You can do something about housing discrimination.

Complaints may be filed by reporting violations to the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD).
