Minimum fee (nonemergency) is $39. Material in electronic format must be in PC-compatible, MS-Windows Word format; material submitted or requested in other formats may incur extra charges. Delivery is assumed to be via e-mail or via U.S. post; if products need to be delivered via courier (e.g., UPS, Fed Ex, etc.), the courier charge will be included in our invoices to the County. Rates cited above assume translation from written documents; if the source is other than written (e.g., audiotapes, videotapes, etc.), there will be an additional charge of $.03 per word. All charges based on word counts will be based on the word count of the target language (i.e., the language into which the material is translated). Changes to a translation, requested by the client and not due to errors or omissions on this contractor's part, are charged by the word as delineated above and minimum fees apply. Proofreading a translation that was not prepared by this contractor or its staff costs $50/hour, with a 1-hour minimum and then in
