

Housing Services Standards of Care

Definition:

Support for Housing Services that involve the provision of short-term assistance to support emergency, temporary, or transitional housing to enable an individual or family to gain or maintain medical care.

Limitations:

Funding cannot be made for care in a facility classified as an Institution for Mental Diseases under Medicaid.

Assistance cannot be a permanent solution. Duration limits must be set to provide transitional and emergency housing services using Housing and Urban Development (HUD) definition of 24 months are the standard.

Housing funds cannot be in the form of direct case payments to recipients for services of rent or mortgage payments.

Services:

For all housing, regardless of whether or not the service includes some type of medical or supportive services, the client received assistance designed to help him/her obtain stable long-term housing, through a strategy to identify re-locate, and/or ensure the individual or family is moved to or capable of maintaining a stable long-term living situation. Eligible housing can include housing that does not provide direct medical or supportive services and housing that provides some type of medical or supportive services, such as residential mental health services, foster care, or assisted living residential services.

Housing services are essential for an individual or family to gain or maintain access and compliance with HIV-related medical care and treatment.

Housing assistance may be provided through:

- Short-term payments to vendors
- Establishment of voucher payment

Funds received under this category may be used for the following housing related expenditures:

- Housing referral services provided by a case manager or other professionals to include assessment, search, placement, and advocacy services, who possess a comprehensive knowledge of local, state, and federal housing programs and how these programs can be accessed.
- Emergency housing defined as an unforeseen event that jeopardizes a household's ability to pay housing costs. Assistance is limited to one month of rental/mortgage/utility assistance within a contract year. The maximum amount of emergency assistance is $600.
- Transitional housing defined support for a homeless person to facilitate movement to independent living within 4 months. Funds may be used for rent and/or application fees. Transitional assistance is limited to four continuous months of funding within a contract year. The maximum amount of assistance is $2,400 per contract year.
- Short term assistance defined as support for a person currently in housing but needing financial support for rent and/or utilities to gain or maintain medical care. Assistance is limited to $2,400 within a contract year.
