COMMUNITY

Our department participated in and facilitated approximately 65 community-focused events, including town hall meetings, neighborhood outreaches, and initiatives like National Night Out.

National Night Out is a community-driven initiative designed to foster partnerships and strengthen neighborhood connections for a safer environment. It enhances relationships between residents and law enforcement while restoring a true sense of community. While National Night Out is celebrated nationwide on the first Tuesday in August, Texas observes it on the first Tuesday in October.

In the fall, The Sheriff's Office collaborated with Genesis Women's Shelter, Dallas County Felony Court, and the Dallas Police Department to host a neighborhood town hall. This event provided valuable insights on how community members can support victims and contribute to breaking the cycle of violence.

During Halloween, staff engaged with the community by hosting Trunk or Treat events for local children. The Sheriff's Office provided gifts to three mobile home park communities during Christmas, bringing joy to hundreds of families. Through our Blue Santa events, over 500 families were served.

ENGAGEMENT

Sheriff Brown co-hosted our inaugural gun buyback event on February 10, 2024. Sheriff Marian Brown, in partnership with NBA legend and licensed deputy Shaquille O'Neal, led the initiative to provide a safe method for residents to dispose of unwanted firearms. Participants received gift cards for guns. The event was exclusively for Dallas County residents. Sheriff Brown emphasized the program's goal: "This is an opportunity for law enforcement to educate and equip community members with the tools to properly dispose of unwanted firearms."

The event took place at the Dallas County Sheriff's Training Academy, located at 8401 South Polk Street in Dallas.

Shaquille O'Neal, supporting the event, added, "I support Sheriff Brown's initiatives; the Sheriff is doing the right thing and keeping our communities safe."
